II.1.5) Short description of the contract or purchase(s):

We face an urgent need, both at national and European level, to systematically map and compare developments in this field. The objective of this study is therefore — through a comparative survey of developments in the countries taking part in the Education and Training 2010 programme — to pursue the following 2 main questions:

how is the shift towards learning outcomes reflected in national education and training debates and policies?

how is the shift towards learning outcomes reflected in practical reforms addressing local institutions and individual citizens?

The results of the study will feed directly into existing European cooperation in this field, and in particular into the 'Education and Training 2010' process and the cluster on 'Recognition of learning outcomes'.
